Letter to the Editor:

In my recent Mayor's column discussing all the new businesses coming to the Village and relocation of current stores, I misidentified one of our Village art galleries. Noel Fine Arts is not moving from its location at 80 Kraft Avenue. They have been a mainstay there for over 8 years and continue to thrive with changing art shows every six weeks. Objects and Images Fine Art is indeed vacating their space at 99 Pondfield Road, but remaining in the Village, just relocating to space at 44 Pondfield Road.

I apologize for any confusion I may have caused to the galleries and their customers.

Mayor
